RETALIATION.

France's Offset for the Recent Schnaebelle Affair.

The Anti-German Demonstrations in the French Capital.

Ridiculous Flight of the Tories in the Dillon Times Matter—The Coercionist Cause Gets a Black Eye—Italy's Spot With Spain—Gratitude of the Czar—The Parnell Letter—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

Paris, May 6.—Paris has been very much excited by the events on the frontier. The Schnaebelle incident is only a small feature in the history of irritating troubles along the boundary line. Some of the most conservative of the English newspapers are beginning to think that the tension of feeling between France and Germany has become so great that actual hostilities may ensue during the summer. Although the French officials and the newspapers have been very moderate in tone, yet the people have been very much excited and are not showing the same self-control. It is now proposed in many French circles to proceed against the German residents in Paris as an offset for the Schnaebelle affair. If the German courts should continue the trial against Schnaebelle and render judgment against him in conformity, it is probable that the case against the French residents in Germany would be dismissed from the French war office for furnishing information to the German Government, would be reopened and that he would be prosecuted for treason.

THE IRRITABILITY OF THE FRENCH
has been shown on the occasion of the production of Wagner's opera "Lohengrin." This has been given during the evenings of Tuesday and Wednesday. It has been an artistic success. The musical critics and art lovers have been delighted with the opera, and it has obtained general praise. The lower classes of Paris, however, have been very indignant. The audience upon both nights has been hooted and pelted by the mob which is making their way to the theater.

The Government had at first forbidden the production of this opera, pending the settlement of the Schnaebelle affair and only gave a reluctant consent after the latter had been released. The objection on the part of the authorities to the production of the opera has been not so much on account of its authorship, but rather for the opportunity which it afforded to the mob of anti-German demonstrations during the production of the opera. The French Government, late in the afternoon, interposed by issuing an order that the opera should not, for the present, be given again, so as to avoid the scenes of excitement which would otherwise inevitably have resulted.

PARIS, MAY 6.—An interview last night Premier Goblet told M. Lamoureux that if he determined to continue "Lohengrin" the Government would afford him every protection. The Premier urged him, however, to withdraw the opera, promising that means would be adopted to enable him to recover any loss. He warmly thanked M. Lamoureux for his sacrifice in the interests of peace and quiet.

THE ASIE DISASTER.
The collision between the Asiatic steamer, plying from Barcelona to Marseilles, and the steamer Ajaccio, which resulted in the sinking of the former vessel yesterday, is attributed to the fog which prevailed. One seaman and seven passengers belonging to the Asiatic are missing.

WON'T HAVE SPIES.
BERLIN, MAY 6.—There is no truth in the report that the Government proposes to have a new spy law enacted, in consequence of the Schnaebelle affair. The police will be strengthened, and a detective force will be organized, especially to watch spies. An official bureau-master will be appointed in each town containing 10,000 inhabitants, instead of the present elective incumbents.

THE TORIES' FLIGHT.
Coercion Gets a Black Eye—The Phelps-Walker Tribune.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, MAY 6.—The Government are at last in a ludicrous hole, and, for their life, they do not see how to get out of it, while poor Sir Charles Lewis is the most exasperated man in the Tory party. The suggestion that the Attorney-General should prosecute the Times on behalf of Dillon may safely be described as the most demoralized whim ever issued from the brains of puzzled or unscrupulous politicians. When Smith offered it the House was silent for a minute, not being able to believe that he was serious. Then Liberals and Conservatives alike burst into roars of laughter, again and again repeated, in which, after a while, the Conservatives were compelled to join.

First, the Government thus invites the Parnellites to join in collusive action at law, in which the plaintiff and defendant should be of the same opinion; secondly, and madder still, they invite the Parnellites to place the whole of their case in the hands of the Attorney-General, and, therefore, within the knowledge of the Government—their bitterest and most unscrupulous enemies.

It is difficult to see how any one outside of Bedlam can have conceived such a plan. The Parnellites, however, are making splendid capital out of the folly and vacillation of the Government. As for the question of breach of privilege, there can be no doubt that the Times was guilty, according to all precedent. The ten precedents of the Government, as Gladstone said last night, are so irrelevant as not to be worth ten brasses.

farthings. Take only one real precedent: In 1883 Sir Edward, then Mr. Reed, Chief Constructor of the Navy, wrote to Sir Frederick Smith a letter accusing him of having made false and libelous statements concerning him in his place in Parliament. Reed was summoned to the bar, and the latter decided it unanimously to be a breach of privilege. If this was the case with a private letter, how much more so must it be with columns and columns of the Times. The only course to pursue now will be for Parnell himself to request the appointment of a select committee of inquiry. I know this is the wish of his chief lieutenants, as he would be supported by the Liberals, and the Government could hardly escape granting it. What Parnell will do nobody knows. He is still at Avonville, said to be suffering from a severe cold. Probably, however, he is taking advantage of this cloudy May weather to keep his creel filled.

THE COERCIONIST CAUSE has received a severe blow in the heart of the Birmingham Caucus. In the newly elected Liberal Council a resolution was moved concerning coercion. The Unionist section adjured the Council in the sacred name of John Bright not to pass what would practically be a vote of censure on their honored president. The proposal was defeated and the resolution carried by a vote of 97 to 61. The full import of this can hardly be appreciated outside of Birmingham.

PHILIPS AND WALLER.
With regard to the statement that the relations between Mr. Phelps and Mr. Waller have been strained, there is, to the best of my belief, no foundation for it. I have seen Mr. Henry White, First Secretary of the Legation, who assures me that the relations between Mr. Phelps and Mr. Waller have always been the most cordial. Nothing has occurred, so far as he or any member of the legation was aware, to interrupt them. It is thought there must be some mistake in the report of the remarks attributed to the Consul-General.

IRVING AND COQUILLIN.
Henry Irving is writing an article for the next Nineteenth Century in reply to Coquillin's article in Harper's Monthly, which deals rather sharply with Irving's interpretation and performance of "Faust." The fact is, that Coquillin came to London, was present several times at the Lyceum, and studied the whole of Irving's business and scenic effects. Subsequently Irving learned that the French actor was preparing to play "Faust" in America. This naturally seemed to him rather sharp practice, and he took steps to present him an elaborate performance first, when Coquillin decided, wisely, not to play the part himself.

THE TIMES' PARNELL LETTER.
LONDON, MAY 6.—It is stated that Mr. Parnell has been asked to include the Times among the other charges to be considered in committee.

A WASTE OF TIME.
The Standard, commenting on the debate in the House of Commons, deplores a waste of time to no purpose, for which, it says, even ideas are alike blameable. "The Government," it says, has made a serious mistake in holding the House of Commons to the charge of "Faust." It professes to be willing to utilize in order to purge themselves of the charge of "Faust."

THE UNIONIST SPLIT.
Besides the five Liberal-Unionists, who voted against the Government in the division in the House of Commons yesterday, on Sir Edward Clarke's amendment that the House should treat the Times publication as a breach of privilege, several Liberal-Unionists were absent. The action of these Liberal-Unionists is regarded as further indication that the split in the Unionist ranks is growing.

JAMES GRANT, the novelist, is dead. He was 64 years old.

THE NEW HERMIDES.
It has transpired that Sir Henry Holland, Secretary of State for the Colonies, announced in the Colonial Conference here on the 27th ult., that the Government hoped to arrange with France for a joint naval commission for the purpose of investigating the alleged sinking of the French ship, the Arcturion.

The commission, it was stated, would have power to protect the settlers, traders and missionaries, and would also be empowered to land marines, to punish the natives for committing outrages and to maintain order, and, moreover, to be withdrawn when the special work for which they were landed was accomplished. If the scheme proposed was accepted by France, it was to be arranged that the French garrisons now occupying the chief harbors in the New Hebrides should retire. The Australian Government, however, has refused to accept the proposal, and the French Government has refused to accept the proposal.

THE DUCHESSE OF CUMBERLAND.
VIENNA, MAY 6.—The Duchess of Cumberland, who has been confined in a lunatic asylum some weeks, is now improving.

THE SENDING OF FRENCH CONVICTS to the South Pacific and the rejection of which had made it difficult for the English Government to approach France with any request that she curtail her liberty of action as the uses to which she should put her own territory.

"Surely," exclaimed the Marquis of Salisbury, "the colonies do not desire to make a redoubtable acquisition a 'bell'." The Premier's speech increased the dissatisfaction of the delegates to such an extent that Sir Graham Berry, the Agent-General for Victoria, twisted the Prime Minister with having made a speech that "would have been excellent coming from the mouth of the French Premier."

THE TIMES' BARBANC.
The Times this morning says it rejoices that Parliament was not ensnared into establishing a new and an embarrassing precedent by the appointment of a committee to hear the Dillon case. The committee would have been engaged, says the Times, in what would have been a fishing inquiry. Its action would have not bound the Parnellites in any respect whatever, and would have left open to them all the remedies they now shrink, but to which some of them might resort if the Government should discover the weak points, if there are any, in the case against them. "The strongest thing we saw against Mr. Gladstone in the Ionian Islands case," continues the Times, "was that he was truckling to sedition. This was a political crime which might have been even now. We are not surprised that his lawyer did not consider that there was any reasonable grounds for action."

SHOT AT SUNRISE.
The Condemned Mexican Soldiers Meet Death Bravely at Guaymas.

GUAYMAS, Mexico, May 6.—At sunrise yesterday the judgment of the court-martial in the cases of Col. Arvizu, Lieut. Guadalupe and Louis Bonon was executed. The three faced death bravely, all refusing at first to have their eyes bandaged, but finally on the appeal of Col. Yarrat the men allowed themselves to be blindfolded. A volley was then fired on the condemned men, and the examining surgeon, a few minutes later, pronounced all three dead. These were the persons who created the trouble on the American side of the line some weeks ago. They brought a squad of soldiers to the American side and attempted to release a man from the local officers, who were taking charge of him. The officers were not under arrest, but whom the officers were taking charge of to keep him out of trouble. The three condemned men were held in jail at Nogales for some time, but a sufficient number of army officers could not reach there to try the case. The men were brought here and a sufficient number were secured and the trial began, resulting as stated. Col. Arvizu had been a prominent man in Mexican military and political circles, but much inclined to dissipation. He was a fine-looking man, tall and erect, with a graceful figure and a handsome face.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Galveston, Tex., May 6.—The Diario Oficial to-day announces that President Diaz ordered the release yesterday of Gen. Negrete, who is charged with inciting revolution. He is to be practically on parole until his trial shall terminate.

THE GOVERNMENT meteorological office reports that there was a slight shock of earthquake at Jimenez at 3:45 p. m. Wednesday.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.
United States Minister Manning and Secretary of Legation Conner were specially invited by the Government to attend the distribution of prizes awarded to Mexican exhibitors at the New Orleans and Buenos Ayres Expositions, which took place last evening.

RUSSIA.
ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—The Czarina has donated 100,000 roubles to Gen. Greaser, Prefect of St. Petersburg, in recognition of his services in frustrating the recent plot against the life of the Czar, and the Czar has granted him a pension of 6,000 roubles as a reward for his services in arresting the conspirators.

THE CZAR'S CLEMENCY.
It is reported that the Czar has decided that the sentences of death pronounced against the nihilists convicted of complicity in the recent attempt to assassinate him shall be commuted to imprisonment at hard labor for life in the case of all but two of the condemned.

DEPRAVED Nihilists.
Pollanovsky, one of the condemned, said he and his accomplices acted from firm convictions that what they set out to do, it was their duty to perform.

He is a prisoner in a young student. He had just finished his studies with brilliant success, having taken the gold medal of the University which graduated him. The youth was so ardent in the cause of Nihilism that he sold his gold graduation medal to obtain funds to enable him to accompany a friend to the Empire when the assassination was accomplished. All the prisoners pleaded guilty, and every one refused under threat or promise to betray any accomplice.

$8.. MEN'S SUITS..$8 $10.. MEN'S SUITS..$10

Buy a suit for the money. We have some suits at this price, and offer the choice of 40 patterns in strictly all-wool goods. Suits similar to the ones in the picture and we will not pay at the price, but it would be foolish for us to pay this amount when $8 only will suffice.

In Grand Castimere, Whipcord, Curcukord and Flano. We call especial attention to this splendid line, which will delight you with style, quality, and finish. The patterns and styles are new. Any one of these suits is worth $15, and could not be got for less outside our store.

$12, $15, $18, $20, $25 MEN'S SUITS.

those who have hitherto patronized merchant tailors have never paid below $40 for their suits. We would like to say: Come here and save for yourself what you would otherwise have to pay elsewhere. It would, indeed, be strange, if we couldn't suit you with a first-class suit of elegant material, cut and trimmed in the latest style, and save you 100 per cent on the cost of same. Go to your tailor first, then to us and compare prices.

CASUALTIES.

The Recent Cyclone in Arkansas—Many by a Crusher.

LEITE ROCK, Ark., May 6.—News was carried here this morning announcing at an unknown residence. A. J. Jones, 221 N. Main, in the city of New Mexico, was killed in the same cyclone. In 1887 Mr. Kirkbridge closed the drug business in this city, opening his first store at the corner of Twenty-second and Olive streets. After twenty years he removed to the present location, at the corner War and avenue and opened a general merchandise store. He retired from business, disposing of his stock in the War avenue store to his son, J. H. Kirkbridge, in 1906. He has been in the city for the past two or three months, but yesterday had been apparently regaining his health.
